MTSD to Name Alli Rudich Principal of Lake Shore Middle School

MEQUON, Wis. — The Mequon-Thiensville School District announced that Alli Rudich serve as the next principal of Lake Shore Middle School.

Rudich has served in MTSD for six years as the principal of Donges Bay Elementary School.

“Because students matriculate from Donges Bay to Lake Shore, this transition will provide me with the opportunity to continue to work with many of the students with whom I have established relationships during my tenure at Donges Bay,” said Rudich. “The past six years at Donges Bay have been highly rewarding, yet I look forward to working alongside top-notch educators at Lake Shore as our children continue on their path to success.”

Rudich earned a bachelor of science degree in elementary education with a language arts minor at UW-Milwaukee and a master of education degree in educational administration at Southern Baptist University. In addition to her years of experience in MTSD, Rudich additionally served as an administrator in the School District of Waukesha and the Parkway School District and Rockwood School District in St. Louis County, Missouri.

“In her time at Donges Bay, Alli demonstrated a proven track record in teaming school stakeholders around a shared goal to prioritize student growth and achievement,” said Matthew Joynt, superintendent of schools. “As an experienced administrator in our district, Alli is immediately prepared to continue Lake Shore’s work aligned lockstep with our district’s mission and strategic plan. She’s an outstanding fit for our Lake Shore community.”

The district has initiated the process to identify Donges Bay’s next principal.
